

IILM Institute for Higher Education, New Delhi, India

Faculty Positions Announcement: Short-term international visiting professors

IILM Institute for Higher Education is one of the leading business schools in Delhi. The school has currently about 70 full time faculty members, all having earned post graduation/ PhD from world-renowned business schools. Student enrollments include about 450 undergraduate and 900 postgraduate students.

IILM Institute invites applications for short-term visiting professors in the areas of Accounting & Finance, Organization Behavior, Human Resource Management, Marketing and Information Technology.

Position Description:

(1) Candidates must have a PhD degree at the time of application and a prior experience of teaching business courses at postgraduate level in English.

(2) Starting Period: August 2008

(3) Teaching Period

- Three-week session for a full credit course of (10 hours a week) Total 30 hours;
- Six week session for a full credit course of (5 hours a week) Total 30 hours;

Remuneration: Standard package includes (1) $6000 for a full credit course; (2) round-trip economy airfare; (3) boarding & lodging at IILM Guest House.

E-mail your curriculum vitae to the Executive Dean, IILM Institute for Higher Education at careers.intl@iilm.edu. Please visit our www.iilm.edu/visiting-professors for more Information.