

Centre for Teaching, Research and Learning

ABOUT US

IILM's Centre for Teaching, Research & Learning (CTRL) is one of our Centres of Excellence housed within IILM launched in July 2018. Mindful of how students in the 21st century need skills beyond what conventional pedagogies can deliver, CTRL hopes to lay a foundation that will help educators to collaborate, innovate and share new ways of teaching and learning, to maximize learning outcomes for school and college students' of today who are surrounded by digital technologies.

WHAT WE DO

New trends in pedagogy	Syllabi creation
Digital learning	Flipped classrooms and hybrid courses
Tech integration	Classroom strategies
The use of educational Apps	Design Thinking
Module planning	AI and Robotics

FORTHCOMING SESSIONS

January 19, 2019 :

Inquiry and the Teaching of Science:
A Workshop for School Teachers

February 16, 2019 :

Early Childhood Curriculum:
By Prof. Sunita Singh

March 16, 2019 :

Participant Centered Learning
by Prof Rahul Mishra

April 20, 2019 :

Critical Thinking :
Why do students need it and how can we inculcate it?
by Dr Cherly Jacob and Dr Maina Chawla Singh

WHAT HAVE WE DONE SO FAR?

CTRL's series on '21st C Education

August 18, 2018 :

"Shifting Trends in Education: Reimagining Pedagogy for School Teaching".

September 22, 2018 :

"Teaching and Learning in the Age of Robotics"

October 6, 2018 :

"Understanding School Based Assessment:
Reflection for Teachers"

November 3, 2018 :

"Simulating Learning in the Classroom"

December, 15, 2018 :

"Cultural-historical Assessment: A developmental Approach to Assess Children's Learning"

OUR TRAINERS

Dr Maina Chawla Singh, researcher and consultant in instructional design, innovative pedagogies and the use of technology in education is Scholar-in-Residence, School of International Service, American University, Washington DC. Dr Singh has authored two books, several academic articles and has lectured widely in the United States, France and Israel. Dr Singh is Director, Centre for Teaching, Research and Learning, IILM University, offering wide-ranging faculty trainings and teaching courses on 'Critical Thinking', and "Gender and Identity".
<https://sites.google.com/site/mainachawlasingh/>

Dr Parnika Sharma is an academic, trainer and qualified counselor with a special focus on adolescence and youth. Her areas of interest include counseling psychology, positive psychology and political psychology. She has several years of experience in conducting extensive training programs for Delhi police, Uttar Pradesh police, CRPF, BSF, Election Commission of India, and various multinational corporates, focusing on positive attitude, anger management, personality development, emotional intelligence, leadership and motivation.

Dr Prabhat Rai, Assistant Professor, School of Education Studies, Ambedkar University, Delhi is a researcher and trainer with expertise in Assessment and Early Childhood Education. Formerly, a Senior Research Fellow with the Royal Academy, Paro, Bhutan, Dr Rai has made significant contributions to NCERT in School Based Assessments and teacher training.
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/prabhat-rai-a9218a8a/?originalSubdomain=uk>

Prof Rahul Mishra, teaches courses on Strategy, International Business and General Management at IILM Institute for Higher Education. With 21 years of teaching, training and academic administration, Prof Mishra conducts trainings for middle to senior level executives for BHEL, EIL, NBCC, National Housing Bank, PHDCCI, Department of Personnel and Training.
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/rahul-mishra-9b5b061b/>

Dr Gurpreet Singh Bhatia, Associate Professor & Dean (Academics), IILM Undergraduate Business School, teaches courses in Economics and Strategy.
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/gsbhatianus/>