Our Logo

IILM is a seat of holistic learning.

In Persian, IILM, or “iilm” means Knowledge. IILM communicates a place for seeking and attaining education and wisdom.

Our logo depicts the rising Sun, which, in the words of Swami Vivekananda, is symbolic of Jnana, within the universal symbol of the temple of learning.

The three elements in the IILM logo combine a book, a swan and a lamp. The book symbolizes learning.

Swami Vivekananda has written that the Swan stands for the Paramatman (Supreme Self) Bhagwan Sri SathyaSai Baba, in His Deepavali Day Discourse on 5th Nov 1991, explained that the flame of a lamp has two qualities. One is to banish darkness. The other is continuous upward movement. Even when a lamp is kept in a pit, the flame moves upwards. The sages have therefore adored the lamp of wisdom as the flame that leads men to higher states.

Code of Conduct

As an employee: You should keep in mind some constants that are the foundation of our success—past present and future. There are six things that glue us together in pursuit of our Institute.

These are Integrity, Quality, Innovation, Specialization, Respect and Results.

Integrity

Without integrity, nothing else matters. This means doing what we say we will do... internally and externally... in all cases.

Quality

Going the extra mile in each of your endeavors and heading towards our vision —leader in responsible management education and business focused research.

Innovation

This has been a hallmark of our history and is the lifeblood of our future. We possess a great deal of intellectual capital, which we must leverage to innovative approaches for our students by maximizing their learning value-add from entry to exit and to use it further in the competitive marketplace. Our culture is of continuous improvement and total quality that encourages creativity and innovation

Specialization

The dictionary defines specialization as —the distinctive mark of quality, of service excellence.

Respect

We must respect and support all those we can come in contact with and operate in a professional manner.

Results

The greatest challenge will be to make something happen for your student that is positive and lasting, something that creates value. In the final analysis, achievement of results for the students, within the boundaries of our value system, is what matters most in our institute.

Do's and Don'ts at IILM

Here are a few general rules and a principle an employee of IILM is expected to remain mindful of:

ALWAYS

ALWAYS

- Conducts himself/herself in accordance with the highest, ethical standards, remembering that the definition of a Professional, that we like best, is that of a person who places the students' interest above considerations of personal financial gain
- Is neatly dressed and groomed
- Is pleasant, tactful and considerate in manner, remembering to lead rather than drive people;
- Is on schedule and requests assistance, when falling behind is anticipated;
- Is always quick to respond to students queries or messages
- Remembers that the students ultimate benefit is more important than his/her possible interim annoyance
- Stays out of politics and tries to put himself/herself in the other person's place when exist differences of opinion.
- Professional and business email etiquette and responsibility are expected of all faculty and staff members. Internal communication between employees is strictly for internal use and must not be forwarded /shared with persons outside. Also when communicating with outsiders, email to internal colleagues must be marked with discretion and should be on strictly need basis

NEVER

- Promises more than he/she expects to be able to deliver
- Lies or misrepresents anything, either to students, subordinates or superiors
- Acts on primary reactions, always considers the consequences of any stand or action, checks himself/herself when necessary
- Fails to communicate weekly in writing with superior and designated, other recipients of weekly reports
- Criticizes surroundings, local habits, foods

- Gets involved in political arguments, national or international, or such controversial topics as race and religion

- Criticizes others in a non-constructive way or in the presence of third parties

- Faculty and staff cannot enter into any contract or agreement on behalf of the institute without a specific written authorization from either the Trustee/Secretary or the Director of the institute. Any such contract or agreement signed will be null and void and the institute will not be responsible for the consequences. In this regard the institute reserves its right to initiate appropriate legal action against the concerned persons.

Mentoring

IILM follows an intensive mentoring program for all its students. The faculty is actively involved in a personalized mentoring process for both first and second year students. Each faculty is assigned the role of a — mentor and is expected to counsel, maintain discipline and motivate their mentees (students). The mentoring process works at three levels—personal, academic and for the professional development of the students.

The roles and responsibilities of the mentors broadly include:

- Ensuring overall integration of the student with the program -academically and psychologically.
- Counseling and motivating the students.
- Managing discipline& conduct related issues of the set of assigned students.
- Counseling the students to ensure adherence to attendance norms and be responsible for their self-learning.
- Ensuring personal and professional development of mentee
- Mentoring second year students with special attention on their preparation for the placements.
- Upon announcement of pre-placement talks and interviews, mentors should make sure they spend time with their mentees in order to enable them to understand themselves better and be better prepared for the interviews.
- Keeping in touch with placement managers to be able to guide mentees effectively

Maternity Leave (ML):

This is applicable to all female staff who have completed one year of continuous service and have attended at least 80 days in office. ML may be granted to a female faculty / staff members for first two surviving children. A maximum period of six months of ML may be sanctioned all such employees with pay. Under the Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act, 2017, this benefit could be availed for a period extending up to 8 weeks before the expected delivery date and remaining 18 weeks can be availed post child birth. For availing ML, they have to submit a medical advice letter from a qualified doctor. All relevant Govt regulations would be applicable with respect to ML, however, prior approval of Management would have to be taken for availing the same.

The faculty/staff member will have to necessarily join back to duty on completion of Maternity Leaves; however, in case of medical exceptions a certificate may be submitted for the extension of leave which may be granted on its merits.

Leave without Pay (LWP):

In case of a staff members whose SL/EmL/EL has been exhausted or taken in excess of the entitlement or who has extended leave without informing the authorities of the Institute, those excess leave EmL/EL taken will be treated as leave without pay (LWP), if approved expert facto by the management. If the leave is not so authorized, it will be considered as violation of conduct rules and dealt accordingly.

Study Leave:

- A study leave/extended/deputation for a maximum period of two years may be available on recommendation of the Director only after the faculty members has completed at least five years of continuous service at the Institute.
- Eligibility of study leave would be assessed on how this leave would improve the intellectual capital of the institute.
- Should be applied 30 days in advance in the beginning or end of academic year.
- During the period of study leave the faculty member will not be entitled to draw any salary. He will also not be automatically entitled for promotion as a result of his receiving any advanced degree during the course of his study leave.
- During the period of study leave the faculty will not engage in any gainful employment in other organization and an employee will have to sign an undertaking binding them to the terms of such leave.
- After completing the study leave, rejoining of the faculty will always depend upon the availability of vacant position in the concerned department.

Leave Applicable for Contractual Employees:

Contractual employees will be entitled to 6 Sick Leaves and 6 Emergency Leaves that is 12 leaves in a year and the 10 declared holidays (Gazetted, festival etc). Contractual employees will not be entitled to Earned Leaves.

Procedure for applying for Leaves:

Below is the SOP for leave application process which needs to be followed for all cases. No leave will be considered sanctioned outside this process.

- Application to be made in hard copy and given to your superior/line manager.
- Superior to recommend with reasons and send to the Head of Campus.
- Medical leave, if in an emergency can be taken with information but needs to be backed up by a medical certificate.

Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Hence, all leaves will be considered approved only if the same is sanctioned. You are required to proceed on leave only on its approval. Non adherence to this will tantamount to misconduct and will be seriously viewed. Therefore, all unapproved leaves will be treated as without pay and salary deduction will take place accordingly.

Travel Policy – Rules & Guidelines

Objective

The objective of these rules is to provide a set of guidelines that govern travel for official purposes within or outside the country.

These rules are intended to provide reasonable and adequate allowances/ reimbursements related to the responsibilities and needs of various categories of staff members in consistent with their status in the Institute. It is expected that the entitlement should not exceed the need and these rules should not be mis-utilized.

For the use of personal vehicle for official work following compensation would be paid:

Two wheelers: Rs. 4.00 /KM

All 4 Wheelers: Rs. 7.00 /KM

The faculty members can call for a Taxi as per entitlement from the Institute for official purposes, approved as per the rules.

Generally, it is expected that the employee would stay in the Guest Room of the host institution / university (if the visit concerns Global Study); otherwise, it is expected of the employee to exercise discretion in finalizing the hotel for stay and use of transport.

On return to India, the employee concerned would submit a “statement of expense” along with the supporting bills, whichever feasible.

Loans Policy

Loans to the employees of the organization will not be a matter of right but purely discretionary by the management. Following are the prescribed guidelines:

1. Length of service in the organization: Minimum three years continuous service.
2. Purpose:
 - House building, major repair/new purchase
 - Own, daughter's or dependent sister's marriage
 - Serious illness- primarily for hospitalization for self, spouse, parents and unmarried children
 - Victim of natural calamity and on similar compassionate grounds
 - Purchase of own vehicles (two wheeler/four wheeler).
 - Higher Education of children (for one child only).
3. Gap between repayment of the last loan in full and the application for the present should be minimum one year.
4. All applications for loan must be applied through the specified Loan Form available at respective HR Departments.
5. Employees can also be asked to furnish supporting documents to the Institute.
6. Maximum amount: The maximum eligibility amount is 12 times of the Gross Monthly salary of an employee. However, it will also depend upon the repayment capacity and purpose of the loan. The employees shall require pledging financial instruments in the form of NSC, LIC Policy, and Bonds of a value equal to 75 % of the loan amount. These instruments will be returned only after full recovery of the loan amount taken by the employee.

7. Repayment: 36 - 60 monthly installments. Fixing of installments would depend on the employee's repayment capacity and management's decision. All employees shall deposit PDC of 25 % of the loan amount towards repayment at the time of getting loan amount.

8. In case an employee departs before repayment of the loan amount, his/her final settlement of account will be withheld till such period the complete outstanding loan is recovered from him/her.

Failure to deposit the balance loan amount within 15 days of leaving the services of the organization may lead to: -

- Recovery of outstanding loan with interest as per prevailing market rate
- Initiating appropriate legal action
- Deduction of outstanding loan from the Full & Final Account

9. Interest Rate: All loans will be bearing the interest rate of 10% unless management uses its discretion of waiving off or minimizing the interest. Rate of interest is based on the prevailing market rate and may vary from time to time. Interest may not be charged from an employee having gross salary of less than Rs. 20,000/- per month.

IT Policy for Employees

INTERNET / EMAIL

1. The Institute's computers, computer files, e-mail accounts, internet access and the software furnished to employees are the Institute's property and are meant for official work.
2. The Institute specifically prohibits the use of computers, handhelds and electronic communication, including internet access in ways that are disruptive, offensive or harmful to morale. This includes sexually explicit messages, images and cartoons, ethnic slurs, racial comments, off-color jokes or anything that could be construed as harassment, shows disrespect for others, defames or slanders someone, or otherwise harms another person or business.
3. Employees are not to access the internet to visit any websites that contain pornographic content, any discriminatory message, or one that disparages any group.
4. Employees are not to use computers, laptops, tablets or the e-mail system for commercial messages of any kind or for messages of a religious or political nature, solicitations, gambling or other inappropriate usage. E-mail and Internet access should be used in such a way that all transmissions, whether internal or external, are accurate, appropriate, ethical and lawful.
5. Computers, e-mail usage and internet traffic may be monitored by the Institute as and when required.
6. Employees of the Institute are permitted to use their e-mail or intranet accounts only for official communication. Sending group e-mails like of festive greetings, initiating or partaking in unauthorized or inappropriate discussions, sending e-mails with large attachments, or forwarding chain mails, etc., is strictly prohibited.

SOFTWARE

7. Illegal duplication of software or violation of copyright laws by the copying or sharing of software, installing of pirated or unauthorized software or the distribution of copyrighted material, downloading of non-work related or objectionable files is strictly forbidden.

8. An employee should not misuse a password, access a file or retrieve a stored communication that is not normally accessible to that employee.
9. Access may be provided to employees for subscribed online software and resources. All data contained therein is property of the Institute and therefore may not be misused, communicated, handed over or passed on in any format and through any medium to anyone other than for whom it is intended by the Institute.

LAPTOPS / iPADS/Desktops

1. Desktops/Laptops or iPads are provided by the Institute for official work. The Institute therefore reserves the right to occasionally inspect all systems in compliance with policies.
2. Once issued, the individuals become conditional owners of this hardware. Employees will therefore be responsible for its security, maintenance and replacement of parts including battery.
3. No employee is permitted to pass on or hand over the laptop or iPad issued to them to another person without fulfilling proper handover formalities.
4. In case an employee leaves the organization they will be eligible to retain the iPad provided they have stayed at least 4 years since the issue of the iPad. The eligibility for retaining laptops remains 3 years from the date of issue.
 - a. If an employee leaves the organization prior to this period, then in case of retaining the issued laptop/iPad, the depreciated value of the issued hardware will be adjusted against their full and final valuation.
 - b. Laptops or iPads can only be returned if they are not damaged. This should be clearly endorsed by the recipient (IILM Institute) in concerned employees full and final clearance form.
5. In case of availability of stock and as per discretion of management, the issued hardware may be upgraded to a newer model after 4years in case of iPads and after 4 years in case of laptops. In such an event, the old laptop/iPad will be evaluated for its functionality by the IT Dept., and only after it is felt that the machine needs to be replaced/updated, considering the wear and tear and also the obsolescence, and upgrade will be made. The procedure will be the same as obtaining a new machine. In case it is felt by the IT Dept., that the machine need not be replaced immediately, subsequent evaluation for replacement will be made by the IT deptt every six months, thereafter. No eligible employee can claim a new machine as a matter of right after 3 years (iPads) / 4 years (laptops).

6. In case of loss / pilferage of laptop / iPad, the same will be made good by the employee. The users will have direct responsibility and custody of their assigned machine/s. They will be held financially liable for any loss and / or damage to the machine due to inappropriate usage / carelessness.
7. Users are responsible for maintaining appropriate back-ups, especially of the work related documentation & data created that cannot be retrieved by reinstalling operating system or Program.

The Management reserves the right to update or modify these policies as and when necessary.

Performance Management System

Objective

The Performance Management System has been designed so as to achieve organization goals and facilitate individuals in achieving professional aspirations.

The key objectives of the Performance Management System are to

- Strengthen the Intellectual Asset base of the firm
- Align and harness employee energies towards achieving superior results for our Stakeholders
- Guide employees on the path to strengthening their professional capabilities
- Provide a rational and objective basis for identifying high potential to take on future leadership roles
- Provide an objective basis for rewarding and recognizing performance

The Performance Appraisal Cycle

Individual performance and contribution will be reviewed on a continuous basis through appropriate monitoring and feedback. In this appraisal the focus will be on review of performance against key deliverables and targets and on capabilities demonstrated in the course of the year.

The key outcomes of the end of year performance discussions will be

- An agreed set of action to be undertaken by the employee to improve performance
- Identification of development needs
- Identification of potential for career progression and growth
- Basis for deciding performance awards

1. The appraisal conducted twice a year- December (review of progress on FAAP) & June (review and reward);
2. The Appraisal is based on the Faculty Annual Academic Plan (FAAP) that is filled by all faculty in the beginning of the new academic session;

Components of the appraisal system:

Parameters for assessment/appraisal are announced at the beginning of the year. These include assessment of faculty and their contribution to:

- Academics
- Mentoring
- Placements
- Admissions
- Research & Publications
- Availability to students and presence on campus

The purpose of the review process is to reflect on the achievements and challenges of the preceding year. Specific issues that will have been addressed during the course of the year, this is an opportunity to reflect on, and learn from, the experiences of the year as a whole.

It also forms the basis of deciding the increments and charting growth map for all employees.

The review should be an open and confidential dialogue between Dean/ Director/Chairperson and the faculty, sharing and discussing

- The individual's progress against the objectives previously set, taking into account any changes that have occurred during the year
- Factual information such as feedback from students and other stakeholders, and module review
- The individual's reflection on their own personal development during the year
- Reflection on the individual's achievements in relation to the core values the individual is expected to uphold – these may refer to such areas as quality, teamwork, customer service, teaching, research and behavior

A personal development plan sets out the actions people propose to take in order to learn and develop themselves, together with what the organization is committed to do to support them. Individuals take responsibility for formulating and implementing their plan in agreement with their appraiser. This is an ongoing process of continuous improvement and individuals must be encouraged to engage in a range of developmental activities, both inside and outside IILM, as appropriate. In some cases, development may be a requirement in order to meet expected standards of performance.

A personal development plan should include information on:

- The development activity agreed (including timing, any cost, staff time) and the expected individual and organizational benefit
- Any individual and/or team development objectives targeted to meet faculty/department objectives

Annual Increment

Annual Increment determined from time-to time will be awarded based on —Annual Assessment of performance as per specified Performa (amended from time-to time). However, management in its absolute discretion may consider for any staff members, advance/special increments or one time award based on outstanding performance and potential at any time.

Increments to be reviewed in the appraisal cycle only.

Promotion

Promotion to higher grades shall generally be made subject to needs of the Institute and availability of posts as well as performance of the employees. Eligibility for promotion will conform to AICTE/UGC norms wherever applicable.

Promotions to be reviewed in appraisal cycle only.

Transfers

Staff can be transferred from one department to another within the organization and from one IILM campus to another.

Confidentiality & IPRs Policy

Non-Solicitation

During the term of your employment, you will not directly or indirectly:

- Employ or solicit for employment, or advise or recommend to any other person or entity that they employ or solicit for employment, any employee of the organization
- Solicit or encourage any employee of IILM to leave the employ of the Organization, to do any act that is disloyal to the organization, is inconsistent with the interests of the organization.
- Make any statements or perform any acts intended to interfere with, reasonably likely to interfere with or having the effect of interfering with, any interest of IILM.
- Undertake any alternate employment or engage in competition with, perform any services for, participate in or be connected with any organization which engages in competition with IILM.
- Any assignment/consultancy/training/international teaching assignment need to be approved by competent authority Dean/Director.

Confidentiality

We expect utmost discretion and confidentiality of information to be maintained at all times even beyond the employment term. Any indiscretion or willful sharing of confidential information with third parties shall be deemed as a gross misconduct and may result in immediate termination of services without notice or compensation.

No reports, proposals, designs, patterns, literature etc. (printed and/or on any electronic media) containing information internal to IILM should be taken out of the office, without prior knowledge of the administrative head. In no case, a copy of any Business Proposal / Project Report or any other Document or Software in any form can be given out to any third party without specific written approval from the administrative head.

Exit Policy

Objective

To provide guidelines to be followed when the employee leaves the company either due to Resignation or Termination. This is to ensure that both parties have all issues tied to mutual satisfaction in a fair manner.

Termination of Service

During probation period and / or extended period of probation, every staff is liable to be terminated at any time without any notice or assigning any reason(s) thereof.

On confirmation, services of a staff member can be terminated by giving one month notice, or by payment of one month basic pay in lieu thereof. For disciplinary cases, no payment or notice period is required.

Resignation

All employees whether confirmed or not, will not resign from the services of the Institute in the middle of the academic session. However, management may use its discretion in case of representation of extreme unavoidable circumstances by the departing employee. During non-teaching period all employees are required to give one month's notice or salary in lieu of notice period.

- Faculty Members:

All faculty members are liable to give two months' notice or two month's salary in lieu of notice period in the middle of the academic session. All faculty staff is required to fill an Exit Form (Annexure 10) on leaving the institute.

- Placement/Programme/Admission Staff:

Placement/Programme/Admission staff work in tandem with the academic functions of the institute and are the integral part of the academic development of the students. Hence, if they resign from the services of the institute in the middle of the academic session, they are liable to give two months' notice or two month's salary in lieu of notice period. All Placement/Programme/Admission staff is required to fill an Exit Form (Annexure 10) on leaving the institute.

- Administration and other staff:

Administrative and other staff members whether confirmed or not are required to give one month notice or pay one month's salary in lieu of notice period. Employees working in the capacity of Asst. Manager and above are required to fill an Exit Form (Annexure 10) on leaving the institute.

It is the sole discretion of the management to accept the notice period served by the departing employee and decide the relieving date before expiry of such notice period. The Institution shall not be under any obligation to pay for the non-served notice period.

Process for Resignation

The mail /letter has to be sent to the Director. Written acceptance of resignation will be given to the employee clearly specifying the date of relieving by HR Department. All departing employees are required to handover his/her assigned responsibilities to the designated person and get a confirmation from him/her that all job responsibilities have been handed over to the satisfaction of the line manager. During the notice period the employee will help to complete all formalities including exit interview, handing over the no dues certificate and PF withdrawal forms. The HR/Administration will help in procuring the No Dues Certificate. On receipt of No dues Certificate, the full and final settlement of account would be prepared. Final payment cheque shall be issued along with Experience-cum-Relieving Certificate. This will be telephonically communicated to the employee who can come to either pick the cheque from LR or it will be posted to the address as mentioned by them.

Please note once the duly completed no dues certificate reaches the office it will take 15 days to clear the account.

Retirement

Staff shall retire from service of the Institute on attaining the age of superannuation fixed at 58 years. However, the retirement age may be changed from time-to-time by the management. To determine age of retirement, the official record of age available with the Institution shall be treated as final. However, fresh arrangement can be made to avail the service of the retired employees on consultancy basis on terms fixed by the management, which will be at the sole discretion of the Management.

In case of long unsanctioned leave

You will be considered to have voluntarily abandoned the service of the organization if you fail to report for duty, either after 5 days from the date of expiry of your sanctioned leave, or you are absent for a period of 5 consecutive days or more without sanction or if you turn up to rejoin duty after an unauthorized absence of more than 5 days and are unable to explain your absence to the satisfaction of the organization.

Return of IILM's Property

You shall promptly upon the termination of your employment, deliver organization's equipments and belongings (laptop, mobile phone, data card, books, visiting cards etc.), correspondence and all other documents, papers and records in whatever form, including but not limited to, electronically held data containing or referring to any client, proprietary or confidential information concerning the business of the Firm and of any of its Clients which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your employment. You shall not keep any copies of these items.

No copy (printed or digital) of any document or proposals or report or contacts' database can be made by the departing employee. Any violation of the Institute's intellectual property ownership or rights will be taken very seriously, and legal action may be initiated against such employees who are found to have taken any organization document or file or presentation or any other official records.

Issue of No objection certificate/ Recommendation & Relieving Letter

Any employee requiring such letter/s / NOC, may forward their request to their respective area heads/directors, who may forward recommendation of such letters to corporate HR at IILM, Lodhi Road.

The Corporate HR team will issue such letters to the respective employee in its standard format.
