

Paramjeet Chawla is an Assistant Professor in Economics. She has been working in the field of economics and policy since the last 5 years. She has worked with World Resources Institute, Institute for Competitiveness, Social Impact Assessment Cell – Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) as well a social entrepreneurship - Outline India. She has been a teacher assistant at TISS and delved in online content creation in the field of economics.

Her key areas of academic and policy research include human development and capabilities, inequalities, horizontal inequalities, social exclusion, gender, youth, urban, city, research methods, and quantitative data analysis.

She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. in Development Studies from Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai. She has completed her M.Phil. in Development Studies from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, her Masters in Development Economics from South Asian University, and her Bachelors from Lady Shri Ram College for Women under University of Delhi.